

TCMS5AA GENERAL ECONOMICS

5KUCMN1 General Economics		Duration : 30 hours	ECTS Credits : 3.5	Semester : S5
Person(s) in charge : Eve-Angeline LAMBERT, Associate Professor, eve-angeline.lambert@mines-nancy-univ-lorraine.fr , Stephane LHUILLERY, Professor, stephane.lhuillery@icn-groupe.fr
Keywords : macroeconomics, current economic problems, microeconomics, economics of the firm
Prerequisites : none
Objective : to give some economic culture as well as the basic tools to progress more easily during the second and third years courses
Program and Contents : The course is structured into three parts : 1) Macroeconomics (4 lectures), E.-A. Lambert: after a lecture displaying the main stakes, students will participate in debates over questions of economic problems and policy. Lecture 1 : Economic growth Lecture 2 : Unemployment Lecture 3 : Inflation Lecture 4 : Budgetary and monetary policies 2) Microeconomics (2 lectures), E.-A. Lambert: the aim is to understand how economics takes into account the behavior of consumers and firms Lecture 5 : the consumer Lecture 6 : the producer 3) Economics of the firm (3 lectures), S. Lhuillery Lecture 7 : Organization economics Lecture 8 : Governance models Lecture 9 : Market structures and competition policy
Abilities:
Levels	Description and operational verbs
Connaître
Comprendre
Appliquer
Analyser
Synthétiser

Évaluer
Évaluations :
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Written test	<input type="checkbox"/> Continuous control	<input type="checkbox"/> Oral report	<input type="checkbox"/> Project	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Written report